CIA "HISTORIES": BREAKDOWN OF CERTAIN ITEMS REQUESTED AND ITEMS NOT REQUESTED

Note: This analysis excludes histories of a purely internal, organizational or administrative nature (such as "CIA Recruitment, 1947-71") and histories of other matters covering essentially the entire period of the CIA (such as "Major Policy Authorization for the Conduct of Covert Paramilitary Activities by CIA, 1948-1966.") It focuses instead on activities or operations -- particularly specific covert or clandestine actions -- and similar matters which are within the Senate Select Committee's stated area of interest and generally attributed to one particular Presidential Administration.

I. Items of significance relating to the period of the Eisenhower and Nixon Administrations

A. Histories requested

1. Monitoring the 1970 Middle East Cease Fire: The Intelligence Role (TS/TKH) (DDI-2)
